The National Adoption Center expands adoption opportunities for children throughout the United States, particularly children with special needs and from minority cultures.

National Adoption Foundation (NAF)

100 Mill Plain Road
Danbury, CT, 06811
URL: <http://www.nafadopt.org/default.asp>

The National Adoption Foundation provides financial assistance, services, and support to families before, during, and after their adoptions. The Foundation's programs are available to any family whether they are adopting an infant, a child from abroad, or a child from foster care. In addition to providing financial assistance, NAF seeks to educate policy makers and the public about the financial barriers to adoption and the unmet needs of many families. The National Adoption Foundation is the only national resource dedicated exclusively to providing financial support, information, and services directly to adoptive families.

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families
(ACF/HHS)

200 Independence Avenue SW
Washington, DC, 20201
Phone: (202) 619-0257
